

Our city – inside out

The museum goes out into the city and brings it into the museum. This walk links

Jewish historical sites with a visit to the museum and gives visitors a new insight into their city. On the way from Seitenstettengasse via Marc-Aurel-Strasse to Hoher Markt and the residences of the court actors and Alma Mater's shopping address you will experience a historical tour that seeks the traces of Jewish life in Vienna.

Price: € 120.00 (120 minutes) per group

Our city – 3x3

An interesting tour for visitors looking for more than a classic museum guided tour. The 3x3 tour is for groups of at least six and at most twelve visitors, in which the participants decide how we should talk about Vienna's Jewish history. On each floor of the permanent exhibition you will pick out (just) three exhibits. We look forward to seeing what you choose before we take a tour of the exhibition together.

Price: € 40.00 (60 minutes) or € 60.00 (90 minutes) per group

Our city – political

What have presidents, chancellors, mayors, emperors, and empresses said about Jewish Vienna and hence about themselves? An insightful tour of the permanent exhibition of the Jewish Museum Vienna, which also illustrates the breaks in the Jewish history of this city. It shows as well how the small Jewish community managed after the difficult start in 1945 to become what it is today.

Price: € 40.00 (60 minutes) or € 60.00 (90 minutes) per group

Our city – women

Who are Hilde, Lilly, Margit, Miriam, Fanny, Julie, Käthe, Bertha, and Marie? This tour tells the story of women and looks at objects and situations directly connected with them. How famous women became networkers, how they fought to obtain social and political rights, or simply the traces they left: a tour through Jewish Vienna in which men are also welcome to participate.

Price: € 40.00 (60 minutes) or € 60.00 (90 minutes) per group

Our city – festive

Find out more about Jewish holidays, traditions and customs. The innovative presentation of Jewish holidays as part of the historical exhibition narrative gives a multidimensional insight into traditional Jewish life in Vienna past and present. Find out in the Jewish Museum Vienna how Jewish holidays are celebrated. The museum's unique collection contains many very different objects that not only illustrate Vienna's Jewish cultural history but also tell the story of European culture and history, not least since – like members of the community – many of the objects came from elsewhere.

Our city – resting

This tour provides information about Shabbat, the weekly day of rest, taking you from the present to the past and back again. The Shabbat Room created by the Israeli artist Maya Zack for the permanent exhibition "Our City!" invites you to reflect on the reconstruction of time and memory through the medium of modern art. Her work references the "Gute Stube" designed by the Jewish genre painter Isidor Kaufmann in the first Vienna Jewish Museum founded in 1895. Only a few objects have survived. This tour tells their story and provides insights into Jewish Vienna, its past and present.

Price: € 40.00 (60 minutes) or € 60.00 (90 minutes) per group

Our city – sun, moon, and stars

In some museums you can book a tour and look at the sky – and the Jewish Museum is no exception! Even on cloudy days, this "cosmic" tour offers interesting information about the Jewish calendar and the dates of the holidays and explains the special significance of the (invisible) new moon.
