

Snowglobe

This summer Vienna belongs to the Viennese. What is your favorite place in Vienna? Which building do you like best? Draw it in the snow globe.
PS: The drawings are taken from the book “On the Road with Victoria Blitz,” the FIRST children’s book about Viennese Jewish history, which is available at the Gottfried & Söhne museum shop.

Let’s go!

You can send us your stories and photos of your creations either per post or via E-Mail.
